Paragraph

Winter begins on December 21st and lasts through March 20th. In the Northern Hemisphere, where we live, the sun is low in the sky during the winter months. The ancient Romans are the people who set up the original yearly calendar based on the movement of the sun. They called winter “The Dark Time” and did not have names for the months we call January and February.

Vocabulary Words

1. commotion 2. dusk 3. embarrassed 4. moaned 5. retraced

Writing Prompt

Write about a meal that was memorable, this means you will never forget it. Did you eat the crispiest fried chicken or Chinese food that made you happy? Remember to tell WHERE it took place, WHEN it took place, WHO was with you, and WHAT happened. Gives lots of details and tell HOW you felt about the experience.
