

Gloria Who Might Be My Best Friend
OCR 3rd grade Unit 1 Lesson 1
Readers Theatre

Mel: Doing cartwheels is fun.

Joe: But it sure is hot outside.

Mel: I'm thirsty. Let's get something to drink.

Joe: We could probably make some chocolate milk.

Mel: I seriously like the way you think.

Joe: Can you lend me a hand to get the milk?

Mel: Sure, do you have a stool that I can step on?

Joe: It's in the closet right next to my sea shell collection.

Mel: I can't open the door.

Joe: Just jerk the handle.

Mel: I got it. I'm ready to pour the milk.

Joe: Here comes the chocolate syrup.

Mel: This is the best chocolate milk ever.

Joe: Ha, ha! You have a mustache.

Mel: So do you. We look like a couple of old men.

Joe: I have an idea. We'll keep the mustaches. We won't take baths.

Mel: Then our teacher will send us home because she'll think we're old men.

Joe: Or she'll send us home because we smell.

Mel: Either way we can play instead of being in school.

Joe: Best friends always come up with the best ideas.
