

The Cobbler's Song
OCR 3rd grade Unit 5 Lesson 7
Readers Theatre

Jean: I'm exhausted. Last night, I slept dreadfully.

Claude: You, too? I am walking around drowsily.

Jean: I feared that a thief would come and rob me of my invention.

Claude: That would have been horrible. You have given it a lot of attention.

Jean: Even if it was stolen, I would still be very thankful.

Claude: But, if it were stolen, that would be extremely dreadful!

Jean: No, I would actually be relieved.

Claude: What about the money that you would have received?

Jean: I am always frightfully worried about someone recognizing me.

Claude: Perhaps, I'll take it for safekeeping by the sea.

Jean: Yes, but be careful. You will need new shoes for your feet.

Claude: I hastily mended my old ones trying to make ends meet?

Jean: My invention needs a name.

Claude: Something that would match its fame.

Jean: How about the Amazing Funtastic?

Claude: I would do a flip and be gymnastic.
