Paragraph

Favorite Fairy Tales retold by Virginia Haviland (con't)

The priest was frightened. He did not intend to keep such a strange teakettle in his temple. He sent for the junkman and handed the kettle back to him.

Poor junkman! He had to carry the teakettle home, but he did not know what to do with it. At bedtime he placed it at the head of his bed.

At midnight a voice awakened him. He looked around, and finally discovered that it was coming from the teakettle.
