Paragraph

Favorite Fairy Tales retold by Virginia Haviland

The junkman decided to do just that. As he and the badger-kettle made their rounds of the villages, people flocked to see the dance of the strange teakettle. To their delight, it could sing and walk a tightrope, as well as dance.

After many performances, the junkman was no longer poor, but rich—so wealthy, indeed, that he and the teakettle decided they could stop working and retire to a life of leisure.

Vocabulary Words

1. artificial 2. bouquet 3. hauling

Writing Prompt

Write a paragraph about eating a slice of pizza. Use all your senses (see, smell, hear, touch, and taste) to give detail of the experience.
