

Journey Chant

(sung to the tune of "Sailing")

by Vivian B. Hanson

Voyage, journey, across the deep blue sea.

Use a map. Follow a route very carefully.

Voyage, journey, travel for days and days.

Leave your home and arrive in a faraway place.

Voyage, journey, learn of geography.

Travel close, travel far, but travel carefully.

Journey, voyage, or travel, they're all the same.

You go someplace. Then return to the place from where you came.

Journeys Army Marching Chant

by Nikki Reich

We are going on a trip

we can travel on a ship

we can travel on a plane

car or bus or metro train

1, 2, pack your shoes

3, 4 bring a little more

5, 6 take some pix

7, 8 don't be late

9, 10 we'll go again.

Captain Bill Pinkney Summary Chant

by Nikki Reich

Refrain: Captain Bill sailed here
Captain Bill sailed there
Captain Bill sailed everywhere.

He left Boston Harbor
On his boat Commitment
He sailed to Bermuda
where house roofs collect rain in it.

(repeat refrain)

He sailed to South America and heard a drumming band.
He saw strange macaws and caimans and the biggest rain forest in the land.

(refrain)

His boat pitched and rolled in the storm on his way to Africa where his ancestors were born. "Lions live there and rhinos too," he radioed the students who were listening from school.

(refrain)

The last continent he visited was Australia where kangaroos and koalas live and laughing kookabara. He returned home to Boston where all the children cheered; for he made a dream come true that he prepared for all those years.

(refrain)

Journeys

Journeys here, journeys there,
Journey, journeys, everywhere!!
Special routes exploring,
Happy dreams sailing,
Important maps guiding,
And seven continents celebrated!!
Journeys over land,
Journeys over oceans,
Journeys across the equator,
And journey around the earth.
Journeys here, journeys there,
Journeys, journeys, everywhere!!
